ANNOUNCEMENTS/PUBLIC COMMENT

Charles Kaminski inquired on how the Development Services and City Planning Departments track and monitor mitigation associated with projects that have an adverse impact to historical resources. He emphasized that there should be a master list available for the public that indicates the resource and the mitigation measures required and if implemented, on any demolished or substantially altered designated resource that is on the City's register.

Charles Kaminski also commented on the comprehensive Heritage Preservation program website. He was disappointed that it wasn't presented to the HRB, Policy Subcommittee, and the public as it was being developed.

James Walters supports the National Register Nomination for Talmadge Park Estate Historic District.

Katherine Rhoades offered her Historical Resources Research Report template to anyone who would like to write their own.

BOARDMEMBERS COMMENT

Chair Hutter shared that Boardmember Abrams discontinued his services with the HRB in December of 2023. Mr. Abrams is very involved in the community we appreciate his involvement and service. Thank you, Bruce.

Boardmember Coyle took time to recognize the annual Governors Preservation Award that she and SOHO will be receiving in recognition of their long-standing service to the community. The project; in which she was a team member along with Rachel Rustin of SDG&E, Brian Williams, and Nick Doose of ASM and Carmen Lucas of the Laguna Indian Tribe; was to do an evaluation on top of Mount Laguna, east of Julian, to be a tribal cultural resource landscape eligible for the National Register of Historic Places. The nomination centered on the Tribal voice, but also used geology, springs, and archaeology as other lines of evidence. It's awarded because the state hopes this can be a model for other tribal communities state-wide who want to put their sacred places on the National Register. Boardmember Coyle is very happy and honored to receive this award on February 27th around 1-3 pm in Sacramento, you can also watch from home.

Suzanne Segur, Senior Planner from the Planning Department, reported that Boardmember Bruce Abrams was appointed in the Spring of 2022, also served on the Policy Subcommittee, and served until December 2023. He will now be spending his newly found free time with his family.
