Hop into Spring at City of San Diego Parks and Recreation Centers

SPRING-THEMED, FAMILY-FRIENDLY ACTIVITIES INCLUDE EGG HUNTS, SCAVENGER HUNTS AND MORE

SAN DIEGO – Spring has arrived and the City of San Diego’s Parks and Recreation Department is ready to celebrate the season through spring-themed special events at recreation centers across the City during March and April.

Various programs are planned including egg hunts, scavenger hunts, Earth Day celebrations and more beginning Thursday, March 23, and running through Saturday, April 22. Nearly 50 events are planned at recreation centers and parks in all San Diego communities, with events scheduled at times throughout the day, including some evening programs in collaboration with Parks After Dark.

Kids of all ages are invited to participate in the free, family-friendly activities that are sure to be a “hopping” good time for the entire family.

“Spring is a beautiful time in San Diego, and we look forward to seeing families participate in these fun activities in their own neighborhoods,” said Andy Field, Director of the City’s Parks and Recreation Department. “It is a priority of ours to ensure that we provide programs that the entire family can enjoy together and this lineup of spring events does just that.”
