The petition shall set forth the nature of the pending proceeding; the name and address of the witness whose testimony is desired; a showing of the materiality of the testimony; a showing that the witness will be unable or cannot be compelled to attend; and shall request an order requiring the witness to appear and testify before an officer named in the petition for that purpose. - §8.03 Requests for discovery must be made in writing. While no particular form must be used, the request must clearly and plainly state the information or items sought. Requests for discovery must be served on the party from whom the discovery is sought as well as all other parties.
- §8.04 The party responding to the discovery request shall respond within ten calendar days, and shall ensure that all other parties to the hearing are provided with a copy of all documents that are produced. - §11.01 Each Respondent has the right to attend the hearing, and may be represented by legal counsel or any other representative of his or her choosing.
- §11.02 The Petitioner has the right to be advised by its General Counsel. If the General Counsel is unavailable or not able to advise the Petitioner due to a conflict-of-interest, Petitioner has the right to secure alternative legal counsel.
- §11.03 The Presiding Authority has the right to be advised by legal counsel of its own selection, but in no event shall it be advised by the same legal counsel identified in section 11.02.

ARTICLE XII - CHRONOLOGY OF THE HEARING

The chronology contained in this Article provides the basic order of proceedings during the hearing. The Presiding Authority, at its discretion, may modify this chronology in the interests of conducting an efficient and expedient hearing, unless such modification prevents due process from being afforded to all parties to the hearing.

- §12.01 The Presiding Authority calls the matter for hearing and asks the parties and counsel to identify themselves.
- §12.02 If the hearing is a Probable Cause Hearing, the following documents shall be made a part of the record: the notice of hearing; the Draft Administrative Complaint; the Probable Cause Report; any response to the Probable Cause Report filed by the Respondent; any rebuttal to Respondent's response to the Probable Cause Report; and any waivers as to the disqualification of a member of the Presiding Authority.
- §12.03 If the hearing is an Administrative Hearing, the following documents shall be made a part of the record: the notice of hearing; the Final Administrative Complaint; Petitioner's administrative hearing brief; any administrative hearing brief submitted by a Respondent; and any waivers as to the disqualification of a member of the Presiding Authority.
- §12.04 The Presiding Authority takes official notice of the capacity of all Respondents and the status of the Petitioner.
- §12.05 Any party may make an opening statement. If the Petitioner and Respondent both wish to make an opening statement, the Petitioner proceeds first. The Respondent may reply after the Petitioner's opening statement or may reserve an opening statement until after the Petitioner concludes his or her case.
- §12.06 The Petitioner puts on his or her case first.
- §12.07 The Respondent puts on his or her case after the Petitioner concludes its case. If there is more than one Respondent, the order of presentation may be decided by mutual agreement of the Respondents or, if necessary, by the discretion of the Presiding Authority.

- §12.08 After the initial presentation of evidence by both sides, the parties, beginning with the Petitioner, may introduce evidence in rebuttal. Such evidence should be limited to matters already raised in the presentation of the Petitioner's or Respondent's case.
- §12.09 Each party may make a closing argument. The Petitioner proceeds first. The Respondent proceeds after the Petitioner's closing argument. The Petitioner may conclude the closing arguments with a rebuttal.
- §12.10 These procedures do not authorize the making of a motion for dismissal or a motion for nonsuit at any time during the hearing.

ARTICLE XIII - EVIDENCE

- §13.01 Oral evidence shall be taken only on oath. The oath may be administered by the Presiding Authority. The oath is obtained by an affirmative response to the following statement: "Do you solemnly state, under penalty of perjury, that the evidence that you shall give in this matter shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth?"
- §13.02 Each party shall have these rights:
- (a) To call and examine witnesses;
 - (b) To introduce exhibits;
 - (c) To cross-examine opposing witnesses on any matter relevant to the issues even though that matter was not covered in the direct examination;
 - (d) To impeach any witness regardless of which party first called him or her to testify.
- §13.03 A party may redirect and recross, subject only to the limitations imposed by the Presiding Authority.
- §13.04 The Petitioner may call and examine any Respondent as if under cross-examination even if that Respondent does not first testify in his or her own behalf.
- §13.05 The hearing need not be conducted according to the provisions of the California Evidence Code. Any relevant evidence shall be admitted if it is the sort of evidence on which responsible persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of serious affairs, regardless of the existence of any common law or statutory rule which might make improper the admission of the evidence over objection in civil actions.
- §13.06 Hearsay evidence may be used. However, at an Administrative Hearing, hearsay evidence may be used for the purpose of supplementing or explaining other evidence but over timely objection shall not be sufficient in itself to support a finding unless it would be admissible over objection in civil actions. An objection is timely if made before submission of the case.
- §13.07 The rules of privilege shall be effective to the extent that they are applicable in a court of law as governed by Division 8 of the California Evidence Code.

§13.08 The Presiding Authority has discretion to exclude evidence if its probative value is substantially outweighed by the probability that its admission will necessitate undue consumption of time.

ARTICLE XIV - EX PARTE COMMUNICATIONS

§14.01 Except as otherwise provided in this section, while the proceeding is pending, the Presiding Authority and members of the Ethics Commission shall not participate in any communications with any party, representative of a party, or any person who has a direct or indirect interest in the outcome of the proceeding about the subject matter or merits of the case at issue, without notice and opportunity of all parties, to participate in communication.

§14.02 No pleading, letter, document, or other writing shall be filed by a party unless service of a copy thereof together with any exhibit or attachment is made on all other parties to the proceeding.

§14.03 Communications prohibited under section 14.01 do not include communications concerning matters of procedure or practice, including requests for continuances that are not in controversy. It also does not prohibit communications between a party and the presiding authority when the opposing party has had a default entered pursuant to Article XV.

§14.04 If, while the proceeding is pending, the Presiding Authority or the Ethics Commissioners receive a communication of a type that would be in violation of this Article, he or she shall, promptly disclose the content of the communication on the record and give all parties an opportunity to address it.

ARTICLE XV - DEFAULT

§15.01 In the event a Respondent fails to appear at a hearing, the Presiding Authority may direct that the scope of the hearing be narrowed. At its discretion, the Presiding Authority may conduct a hearing notwithstanding the absence of the Respondent or, in the alternative, dispense with the hearing and take under submission Respondent's express written admissions, stipulations entered into between the parties, and any other written evidence submitted by a party present at the hearing.

§15.02 In the event of the Respondent's default, and within seven business days after a decision by the Commission that either (1) there is probable cause to believe that the Respondent has committed a violation of Governmental Ethics Laws, or (2) the Respondent has committed a violation of Governmental Ethics Laws, the Respondent may serve a written motion requesting that the decision be vacated and stating the grounds relied on. The Commission, in its discretion, may vacate the decision and grant a re-hearing on a showing of good cause. As used in this section, good cause includes, but is not limited to, any of the following:

- (a) Failure of the person to receive notice of the hearing; or
- (b) Mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect.
