Dear District 2 residents,

Budget Review hearings are underway for the next few weeks, until the Mayor releases his Revised Budget. During these hearings, the heads of each City Department will present on the proposed budget for their department.

Councilmembers will have the opportunity to ask questions and propose changes to the specific allocations included in the budget.

Despite the challenging budget outlook for the next year, the proposed budget includes funding for several Departments providing key services to our city's residents. Our Police and Fire-Rescue Departments experienced non-substantial reductions, which will allow them to continue to keep our City safe and support the enforcement of ordinances like the Street Vendor Ordinance.

The Transportation Department saw a proposed increase for the new Mill and Pave Team, which will support the work of current City crews to repair our streets. The main complaint my office receives from residents is the condition of the roads in District 2, and having the additional staff to support road repair across the City will allow crews to work faster and more efficiently.

The Developmental Services Department has been continually reducing their vacancies over the last several years, which creates a smoother experience for residents and businesses interacting with the Department. I am grateful that the reductions to their budget are only minimal.

This year, there are two dedicated hearings for the public to provide their comments on the FY25 proposed budget. The next opportunity will be Wednesday, May 8 at 6pm, and testimony can be given either in-person on the 12th Floor or virtually using the options available on the City Clerk's website.

Best,

Councilmember Jennifer Campbell
