The two day event program will be held from 11am-5pm each day and admission is free.

The main attraction of the two-day Festival is continuous entertainment presented in a well designed stage. The family-oriented and alcohol free event showcases traditional performing arts of the Philippines including colorful folk dances from different regions of the Philippines, folk songs, Rondalla String Ensemble and Kulintang music of the Southern Philippines, mainstream entertainment by young Filipino American artists, talent show, hip hop, jazz dances and other variety acts by Asian and Pacific Islander artists. Cultural, crafts and photo exhibits will be displayed. We will have merchandise and food vendors.

For 2015 this traditionally August held event was moved to June for the Balboa Park Centennial. The 2016 Philippine Cultural Arts Festival is partly funded by the City of San Diego, Commission on Arts & Culture, the County of San Diego community Enhancement Program through supervisors Greg Cox, Dave Roberts and Ron Roberts, and by individual donations.
