One San Diego Hosts Better-a-Block Party in Lincoln Park

Faith, Community leaders join Mayor Faulconer and SDPD in neighborhood block party

One San Diego is hosting its third Better-a-Block Party in Lincoln Park to strengthen the relationships between neighborhood residents and civic leaders. One San Diego, a nonprofit established by Mayor Kevin L. Faulconer and First Lady Katherine Stuart Faulconer, will bring together the San Diego Police Department Southeastern Division, corporate sponsor AT&T and local faith leaders to help members of the community connect with resources in a fun, educational and engaging atmosphere. Admission, food and entertainment will be provided for free. A street mural designed by Lincoln High School students will also be painted during the event.

WHAT: News conference and neighborhood party

WHO: Mayor Kevin L. Faulconer
First Lady Katherine Stuart, One San Diego Honorary Chair
Police Chief Shelley Zimmerman
Ignacio De La Torre, Regional Vice President of External Affairs, AT&T
Councilwoman Myrtle Cole, District 4
