Victim Identified in Oak Park Homicide

San Diego –At approximately 9:30 p.m. on May 12, 2021, the San Diego Police Communications Center received a 911 call regarding a possible shooting in the 3100 block of Collura Street. When officers arrived on scene, they found a man down in the front yard of a residence with an apparent gunshot wound to his upper body. The officers provided first aid to the male, who was later transported to the hospital. Unfortunately the man did not survive his wounds and was pronounced deceased.

Investigators from the San Diego Police Homicide Unit were called to the scene to investigate the incident. It is still very early in the investigation and little is known about the circumstances leading to the man's death. Neighbors heard a gunshot in the area and went outside to find the victim down in a front yard. We do not have any suspect information to share at this time.

The victim has been identified as 44 year-old Bao Duong.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
