Police Investigate Homicide in Mission Bay Park

San Diego – This morning, just after 3:30 a.m., multiple callers reported hearing at least one gunshot and someone down at the San Diego Mission Bay Resort. Officers arrived and found a male down in a hotel room suffering from ballistic trauma to his torso. Despite life-saving efforts by officers and San Diego Fire-Rescue personnel, the male was pronounced deceased at the scene.

San Diego Police Homicide detectives were called to the scene to conduct an investigation. According to witnesses, an altercation took place in the hallway and the hotel room culminating with at least one gun shot. Witnesses also described two males leaving the area in a white, late-model sedan.

The victim has been tentatively identified but confirmation will be made by the Medical Examiner's Office. He is described as a 20-year-old male.

Investigators are still seeking information and trying to identify the males who left the scene. Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
