Police Investigate Suspicious Death in Ocean Beach

San Diego – On Friday, May 21, 2021, just before 11:30 p.m., the San Diego Police Communications Center received a call reporting an unresponsive male was down in an alley at 4800 Niagara Avenue in Ocean Beach.

Officers from Western Division arrived at the location and found the male in the north alley. The male was unresponsive and a citizen was performing CPR. Officers and San Diego Fire-Rescue personnel took over life-saving measures. Unfortunately, the male was pronounced deceased at the scene at 11:41 p.m.

Due to the suspicious nature of the death, San Diego Police Homicide Detectives were called to the scene and are currently investigating the incident. It is still early in the investigation and detectives have no information about the circumstances surrounding the death, however, the male had visible injuries. Detectives are collecting evidence and attempting to locate witnesses.

The deceased male has tentatively been identified, however, his identity is not being released at this time. He is described as a white male in his early 60's.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
