

January 30, 1923.

Hon. Jas. H. Patrick,
Chief of Police,
San Diego, Cal.

Dear Sir:

We hereby introduce Mr. J.C. Burkholder, who will be in charge of the Torrey Pines Lodge and will have supervision over the Torrey Pines Park and enforcement of the law there under this department.

It is respectfully requested that, if it be satisfactory to your office, Mr. Burkholder be appointed a special officer.

Any instructions that you care to give him relative to the conduct and duties of a special police officer will be duly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Board of Park Commissioners,

Superintendent of Parks.
