Mr. H. L. Jackson,
614 B Street,
San Diego, Calif.

Dear Mr. Jackson:-

I have just called up Rohde and I find that the bill which he rendered against me for changing the toilets at the Lodge has not yet been paid. I understood that the Park Board was going to pay this bill and take the toilets.

I am ready to settle your account as soon as this bill to Rohde is paid.

Sincerely yours,

J. C. Harper.
