

601 Marine St.,

La Jolla, Calif.,

June 26, 1926

To the Council, San Diego.

Gentlemen:

The negro
in the employ of the Bishop's School Stable is boasting in the neighborhood
that the stable will not be removed; that money will do anything and they have plenty of money.

To quote the words of Mr. Horace Rhoades before your honorable body, "How does the Bishop's School get away with it?"

Respectfully,

Clara A. Ball.
