Reminder: Full Parking Enforcement Operations to Restart in City of San Diego

TWO-WEEK WARNING PERIOD BEGAN OCT. 1 FOR METER AND STREET SWEEPING VIOLATIONS, CITATIONS WITH FINES TO BEGIN OCT. 15

SAN DIEGO – The City of San Diego wants to make sure residents and visitors are aware that all parking regulations will again be enforced across the city starting Thursday, Oct. 15. Restarting parking enforcement will allow for increased turnover at parking meters and businesses, ensuring accessibility for patrons visiting local stores and restaurants.

Parking enforcement resumed on Oct. 1 with a two-week grace period, during which violators received written warnings.

The City temporarily suspended parking regulations on March 16 following the COVID-19 stay-at-home order, limiting enforcement to holiday or Sunday regulations only. Citations continued to be issued for vehicles parked illegally at red, white and blue painted curbs.

Although street sweeping has continued during the public health emergency, the resumption of enforcement will allow City sweepers to once again sweep debris and dust pollution along the curb line to maintain improved water quality and greatly reduce the potential for flooding as the rainy season approaches.
