Victims Identified in Jamacha/Lomita Stabbings

San Diego – On Sunday, May 8, 2022, at approximately 2:40 a.m., the San Diego Police Communications Center received a call of an assault with a deadly weapon in the area of 800 Carlsbad Street in the Jamacha/Lomita neighborhood. Officers from Southeastern Division responded and located three people who had been stabbed at a residence. Officers began life-saving efforts until paramedics arrived.

The first victim is described as a 36-year-old Black male. He was transported to a local hospital where he was pronounced deceased. He is now identified as Edward Robbins, a San Diego resident.

The second victim is described as a 34-year-old Black male. He was pronounced deceased at the scene. He is now identified as Jeffrey Moore, a San Diego resident.

The third victim is a 24-year-old Hispanic female. She was transported to a local hospital with non-life-threatening injuries. Her name will not be released at this time.

San Diego Police Homicide Detectives were called to the scene to investigate. Preliminary information indicates that there was a gathering of acquaintances at the residence. During this gathering, a physical fight broke out. During the fight, the three victims were stabbed with a knife. Michael Major, described as a 38-year-old Black male, was taken into custody for committing the stabbings. He was treated at a local hospital for non-life-threatening injuries sustained during the fight and booked into county jail on two counts of murder.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
