1950's

Ben Press

Honoring Ben Press, known as “Mr. Tennis San Diego.” He began playing tennis in the 1930’s at the University Heights tennis courts under the tutelage of Wilbur Folsom. Ben, a national tennis champion, was also a legendary coach in San Diego for over 60 years.

Early 1950's

Maureen Connolly

In honor of Maureen “Little Mo” Connolly, the number one tennis player in the world from 1952 to 1954. She grew up across the street from the University Heights tennis courts. In 1953 Maureen became the first woman to win the calendar Grand Slam.

1930's Next Door To University Heights Courts.

Wilbur Folsom

Honoring Wilbur Folsom, “architect of tennis champions.” From the 1930’s-through the late-1940’s he taught thousands at the University Heights tennis courts, followed by nearly two decades at Morley Field. Wilbur dedicated his life to making tennis instruction and equipment available to all.

I have carefully reviewed and hereby accept the drawing(s) as shown. I realize that any changes made before or after production may alter the quoted price. The design draft is intended for placement of text/objects and not for color matching as colors vary between computer monitors. Specific colors need to be chosen from our in-shop color charts and samples. This is an original, unpublished drawing created by Pacific Sign Center and is submitted for your personal use in connection with a project being prepared for you by Pacific Sign Center. It is not to be shown to anyone outside your organization, nor is it to be used, reproduced or exhibited in any fashion.
