SDPD Arrests Man in Connection with Mira Mesa Stabbing

SAN DIEGO- This afternoon, the San Diego Police Department took 27-year-old Cole Klemke of Carmel Valley into custody for the stabbing of a 25-year-old pregnant woman.

On Saturday, June 15, the suspect attacked the woman near the Mira Mesa Target. The victim was withdrawing money from an ATM at the time of the incident. The victim was stabbed in the neck, chin, and shoulder. The injuries are non-life threatening and she was later released from the hospital.

During the investigation, Northeastern Division detectives obtained photos and video of the suspect in the Target just before the crime occurred. Detectives were also assisted by several tips from community members, who were able to help identify the man through photos released to the public yesterday.

Any further inquiries can be directed to the San Diego County District Attorney's Office. Anyone with further information about the crime should contact the San Diego Police Department's Northeastern Division at (858) 538-8026 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
