ADMINISTRATION COURTYARD LAWN

This is a beautiful lawn area with a fountain in the center, and flower beds on the edges of the walkway leading to the fountain. The arbor covered, concrete walkways have blooming vines, and tile roofed gazebos at each end create an open courtyard. The Courtyard is located behind the Developed Regional Parks Administration Building at 2125 Park Blvd.

This site is available for ceremonies only. Note: Wedding Ceremony site only; No receptions allowed. Permitted only on Saturdays & Sundays.

Maximum Capacity: 200 people

Available Hours: 10 a.m. to dusk.

Restrooms

No restrooms available. Permittees must provide applicable porta-potties and/or dumpsters for trash. Porta-potties must be placed in 15-minute parking zone on the southside of building.

Food/Beverages

No food or beverages allowed.

BALBOA PARK

ALCAZAR GARDEN

Alcazar Garden, whose design is patterned after the gardens of Alcazar Castle in Seville, Spain, is known for its ornate fountains, exquisite turquoise blue, yellow and green Moorish tiles and shady pergola. This formal garden, bordered by boxwood hedges, is planted with 7,000 annuals for a vibrant display of color throughout the year. The garden has been reconstructed to replicate the 1935 design by San Diego architect Richard Requa.

Note: Wedding Ceremony site only; No receptions allowed.

Maximum Capacity: 50 people

Available Hours: 10 a.m. to dusk.

SPANISH VILLAGE

Built to house shops and restaurants during the second exposition, the Spanish Village Art Center was one of the few areas of the park taken over by the Army, rather than the Navy, during World War II. Today these buildings are home to more than 30 artists' ateliers. On many weekends, ancillary members of the Spanish Village Artist's Guild display their artwork in the open-air plaza located at the center of the studio spaces. The open plaza is available for permitting wedding ceremonies only. Note: Wedding Ceremony site only; No receptions allowed.

Maximum Capacity: 80 people

Available Hours: 10 a.m. to dusk.

Restrooms

ZORO GARDEN

Zoro Garden is a sunken garden located between the Reuben H. Fleet Science Center and the Casa de Balboa. In this 1915 stone grotto, a butterfly garden has been planted which contains both the larvae and nectar plants needed for all cycles of the complete life cycles of butterflies. Milkweed, sunflower, passion vine and California lilac were included as suitable plants for the butterfly larvae (caterpillar) stage. Butterfly bush, lantana, pincushion flower and verbena were added as nectar plants for the adult butterflies. Miniature indentations built into rocks collect small pools of water for the monarch, sulfur, and swallowtail butterflies that can be seen among the colorful perennials and majestic Ficus trees that surround the garden.

WINDANSEA BEACH

The rocky shore of Windansea Beach is perhaps best known for its beautiful scenery and surf breaks created by underwater reefs.

Much of Windansea experiences moderate to severe shore break, a condition on steep beaches which results in hard breaking surf right at the shoreline. This makes it a popular location for surfing; however, swimmers should enter and exit the water carefully to prevent potentially serious injury.

Wedding Ceremony site only; No receptions allowed.

The use of the hut/palapa is prohibited. Must remain for public use.

Maximum Capacity: 50 people

Available Hours: 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Restrooms

There are no restrooms nearby.

Food/Beverages

No food or beverages allowed.
