

Downtown Community Planning Council San Diego

Planning a Vibrant Downtown for All

The regularly scheduled meeting of the Downtown Community Planning Council for June 19th, 2024, has been adjourned in observance of Juneteenth.

Juneteenth commemorates the emancipation of enslaved African Americans in the United States, marking the day when news of freedom reached enslaved people in Texas on June 19th, 1865.

Please note the following public announcements:

1. The Downtown Community Planning Council is seeking community members to represent Downtown on the Airport Authority's Airport Noise Advisory Committee (ANAC). Meetings are held four times a year on the third Wednesday of predetermined months, which are decided at the beginning of the new calendar year. Meetings are scheduled from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the Airport's administrative building. The next meeting will be on September 18th. Representatives are appointed for two-year terms by the Downtown Community Planning Council and are expected to provide updates to the Council following each meeting of the ANAC.
2. A new vacancy for an At-Large Community Organization representative on the Downtown Community Planning Council has become available. Community organizations, such as 501(c)(3) non-profits, are eligible for this seat.
