

OFFICE OF THE SAN DIEGO CITY ATTORNEY

Deputy City Attorneys I-VI perform professional legal duties of similar type and character. Work of Deputy City Attorneys at each of these levels is distinguished by increasing proficiency and skill in independently handling legal issues, matters, and cases of increasing complexity and risk to the City with experienced legal judgment, skill and acumen.

DEPUTY CITY ATTORNEY VI

Civil Litigation Division

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS & SCOPE OF WORK:

Provides the highest level of expertise in the assigned areas of law or specialty. Independently and competently performs advanced legal duties related to complex legal matters and cases. Regularly leads projects of critical importance to the City, which carry substantial consequences of success or failure. Knows when to escalate high-profile and sensitive matters to senior and executive management. Provides high-level advice, training, and/or guidance in their assigned fields of practice to deputies and others as subject matter experts. May supervise deputies, paralegals, investigators, and other City Attorney personnel. Recognizes and appropriately responds to politically sensitive situations with confidential memos, meetings, and other communications.

EDUCATION & EXPERIENCE

Typically, at least fifteen (15) years of experience as an attorney with at least ten (10) years of experience practicing municipal law. Membership in the State Bar of California.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS & ABILITIES

1. Sophisticated awareness of potential Charter/City issues and CORE¹ area issues that arise in assigned areas. Recognized legal authority and subject matter expert with advanced expertise in principles, practices, and procedures related to assigned areas. Makes independent decisions. Sufficiently familiar with other areas to coordinate overlapping assignments or issues. Resource for other DCA's, ACA's and City Attorney personnel. Ability to present at Council meetings and to serve as legal counsel to Council at meetings. Ability to issue clear legal advice to the assigned client and to build trust in the attorney/client relationship.
2. Highest Advanced understanding of City and the duties, powers, and limitations of a city government and prosecutorial authority; pertinent federal, state, and local laws, codes, and regulations; and the City Attorney's Office structure, expectations, policies and procedures.
3. Advanced interpersonal communication and collaboration skills, including proven ability to actively listen, negotiate, persuade, problem-solve, and educate. Skills to gain trust and build credibility with a broad group of colleagues, clients, and the community.
4. Expert research and analytical skills; ability to readily identify critical legislative changes in area of specialty. Subject matter expert for Office guidance resources.
5. Ability to maintain confidentiality and exercise discretion and diplomacy when handling sensitive or potentially sensitive issues. Demonstrated commitment to the highest ethical standards, including California Rules of Professional Conduct. Independently interprets and resolves matters related to rules, procedures, and ethics.

6. High-level, advanced coaching and leadership skills to incorporate feedback and provide clear expectations, guidance, and performance feedback to less experienced DCAs, legal support staff, interns, and volunteers. Exceptional ability to mentor, train, and coach all levels of staff, interns, and volunteers; provide for succession planning in area of specialty.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

1. Regularly counsels and advises senior and executive management, often on issues that can have broad implications. Serves as a superior and masterful trusted strategic partner with City departments providing practical advice and alternative solutions to business issues.
2. Develops objectives and ensures timely service according to established priorities. Delegates work effectively to maximize efficiencies.
3. Provides clear expectations and mentors less experienced DCAs, legal support staff, interns, and volunteers to establish a strong commitment to teamwork and to meet proficient levels of productivity and accuracy.
4. Demonstrates a commitment to advancing diversity and inclusion – is collaborative, supportive, respectful of differences, and committed to fairness and diversity in all interactions, both within and outside the team. Actively champions equity in advancing initiatives and encourages participation in mentoring opportunities. Spearheads efforts to ensure equal opportunity in recruitments through diverse representation on hiring committees and outreach efforts.
5. Has superior written communication skills. Adheres to standards outlined in the City Attorney’s Style Manual. Creates and delivers effective materials and/or presentations appropriate to a particular audience. Presents all communications with Office, client, court, court staff, and opposing counsel in a proficient, professional and courteous manner.
6. Seeks professional development & leadership opportunities.

DIVISION FUNCTIONS:

1. Proficiently and expertly identifies general and nuanced issues and risks. Able to develop strategic solutions to complex issues.
2. Proficiently and expertly identifies, researches, and briefs complex legal matters.
3. Proficiently and expertly drafts pleadings and motions in complex cases.
4. Directs and effectively manages a high-level caseload of complex civil litigation files from inception to disposition, taking into consideration and balancing administrative and leadership responsibilities, if applicable.
5. Proficiently and exceptionally performs all discovery tasks, including fact and expert discovery. Strategically develops and implements comprehensive discovery plans in complex and high-level cases.
6. Expertly Identifies necessary deposition witnesses. Proficiently and exceptionally takes and defends percipient witness, party, and expert depositions in complex and high-level cases.
7. Proficiently and exceptionally handles all court appearances, including dispositive motion hearings, settlement conferences, and mediations in complex and high-level cases.
8. Proficiently and exceptionally performs all aspects of trial preparation and trial in complex and high-level cases.

9. Proficiently and effectively communicates and acts as a liaison with clients, risk management, city departments, outside counsel, and excess insurance carriers.
10. Trains deputies and others on advanced legal and procedural issues.
11. As a recognized leader and expert within the office, provides input and high-level advice on complex legal and procedural issues.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION:

Attorneys in this position must be able to travel to locations outside the office; therefore, possession of a valid California Class C driver's license and personal vehicle or other means to travel are required.

ENVIRONMENT/WORKING CONDITIONS:

Environmental Conditions: Work is performed primarily in a standard office setting with occasional to routine exposure to the external environment when going to outlying offices or meetings and off-site locations. Incumbents may be required to work extended hours including evenings and weekends. Deputy City Attorneys are exempt under the FLSA.

Physical Conditions: Primary functions require sufficient physical ability and mobility to work in an office setting; to stand or sit for prolonged periods of time; to occasionally stoop, bend, kneel, crouch, reach, and twist; to pull up to 25 pounds; to operate office equipment requiring repetitive hand movement and fine coordination including use of a computer keyboard; and to verbally communicate to exchange information. May require occasional to frequent walking of up to .5 miles to off-site locations.