

Proclamation of the City Council City of San Diego

United Against Hate Week

Presented by Mayor Todd Gloria & Councilmember Raul A. Campillo
September 21, 2024 to September 27, 2024

WHEREAS, the City of San Diego has long stood as a beacon of diversity, inclusion, and tolerance, welcoming people from all walks of life; and

WHEREAS, hate crimes and acts of intolerance have no place in our society, and it is imperative that we, as a community, stand united against all forms of hate, discrimination, and bigotry to ensure a safe and respectful environment for everyone; and

WHEREAS, the City of San Diego is committed to fostering an inclusive and supportive atmosphere where all residents and visitors can thrive, free from fear and prejudice, and where our differences are celebrated as strengths; and

WHEREAS, the promotion of education, open dialogue, and cross-cultural understanding among San Diego's richly diverse communities is not only essential for dismantling the barriers of ignorance but also for cultivating a climate of mutual respect, trust, and enduring cooperation that strengthens the social fabric of our region; and

WHEREAS, the City of San Diego recognizes that hate and intolerance, in any form, pose a threat to the well-being of our citizens, and it is our collective responsibility to combat these destructive forces through unity, compassion, and proactive action; and

WHEREAS, United Against Hate Week serves as a vital opportunity for the City of San Diego to reaffirm its commitment to creating a safe, inclusive, and accepting environment for all people, ensuring that the values of equality, respect, and human dignity are upheld throughout our community; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT PROCLAIMED, by the Mayor and the Council of the City of San Diego, that this Council, for and on behalf of the people of San Diego, does hereby proclaim September 21, 2024 to September 27, 2024 to be "United Against Hate Week 2024," in the City of San Diego.
