San Diego Natural History Museum

This year, we're thrilled to announce a stunning 15-foot live poinsettia tree that has been featured on TV, bringing holiday cheer to our community! Visitors will have the chance to take memorable photos at designated picture stations with this breathtaking centerpiece. In addition to the poinsettia tree, we're excited to unveil two new exhibits: La Neighbor and Aloha Vaquero. These exhibitions celebrate the rich tapestry of San Diego's diverse cultures and histories, offering unique insights and experiences for all ages. But that's not all! Join us for Taste San Diego, an exhibition dedicated to the craft brewing scene in our city. Attendees can learn about local brews from our knowledgeable beer docents, who will guide you through the fascinating world of San Diego craft beer. To enhance your experience, we'll also be selling a selection of local beer and wine, making it a perfect outing for enthusiasts and newcomers alike. Come celebrate the spirit of San Diego with us! 5 pm to 9 pm.

Timken Museum of Art

Glittering gems, swirls of colors, elaborate filigree, whimsical designs – it's the Jewels of the Season: Holidays at the Timken an annual tradition since 1988 featuring a collection of ornaments designed and handcrafted by local artists Florence Hord and Elizabeth Schlappi. Each ornament features semi-precious gems, sequins, stones and filigree collected by the two artists from around the world. Often compared to Fabergé eggs, over 1,000 ornaments are on display in the museum's foyer and grand holiday tree.

The Timken Museum has again partnered with grad students from SDSU's Theatre, Television, and Film department and the San Diego Model Railroad Museum to create a custom, multimedia installation which showcases the holiday treasures. The Timken will sparkle with decades of craftsmanship.

Free Admission Always. Saturday Hours: 4:00 pm - 9:00 pm
