Man Dead in Lincoln Park Shooting

San Diego – A man was shot and killed this morning on the 300 block of Willie James Jones Avenue.

On January 5, 2025, at about 9:36a.m., officers from the San Diego Police Department's Southeastern Division responded to a shooting in the area of 300 Willie James Jones Avenue. Once on scene, officers located a 19-year old Hispanic man in the street suffering from at least one gunshot wound to the torso. Officers administered first aid and medics transported the man to a local hospital, but he did not survive his injuries. Detectives are in the process of gathering evidence, interviewing witnesses, and canvassing the neighborhood for security video. The preliminary description of the suspects is two Hispanic male juveniles, both about 5'7" tall, and weighing approximately 140 pounds. Based on information gathered thus far, Detectives are investigating whether the shooting may have been gang motivated.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
