San Diego Fire-Rescue Department Holds Milestone Academy Graduation

MAYOR TODD GLORIA AND FIRE CHIEF ROBERT LOGAN TO ADDRESS RECRUITS AT 100TH FIRE ACADEMY GRADUATION

SAN DIEGO – Thursday evening, March 6, the City of San Diego Fire-Rescue Department (SDFD) will host its 100th Fire Academy graduation for 31 recruits who will begin their careers as probationary firefighters with SDFD. Mayor Todd Gloria will be the keynote speaker and SDFD Chief Robert Logan will preside over his first academy graduation at the Rock Church in Point Loma.

“I am thrilled to welcome these graduates to an incredibly rewarding career and fire family,” said Chief Logan. “We are always looking for talented, dedicated people to join us in protecting this city and the people who live in it. I am confident these graduates will help us do just that.”

The 18-week paid academy includes course work and practice in fire prevention and suppression, emergency medical training, state and local laws and much more.

The graduating class includes a Marine Corps veteran and Air Force veteran and a former professional ballet dancer.
