Myrtle's Message

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT | Jacobs Presents Concert Series Revitalizing with Councilmember Myrtle Cole

The Jacobs Center for Neighborhood Innovation, one of the crown jewel venues in the Fourth Council District, launched a first-class concert series that brought over 600 concert-goers from around San Diego to the Fourth Council District! The concert series kicked off on January 22nd with award-winning R&B band Mint Condition.

I am so pleased with the ticket-buying support and the seamlessly organized event. I am looking forward to the economic impact this concert series will have on the surrounding businesses in Market Creek Plaza. At the end of the concert, I overheard Reginald Jones, President & CEO of the Jacobs saying: "We are revitalizing with Councilmember Myrtle Cole;" and I thought to myself: "Yes, we are!"

KUDOS | Oak Park Community

I want to thank the Oak Park neighbors who celebrated the Dr. MLK, Jr. Holiday by doing community service. A total of 9 volunteers cleaned five streets. This group did the same thing last year plus they painted a fence that needed it. Thank you Lorraine Marshall for organizing the effort and the other community volunteers!

Fourth District Events & Meetings

PUBLIC SAFETY & LIVABLE NEIGHBORHOODS COMMITTEE MEETING | 1/29/14 | 2 p.m.

Councilmember Cole requested that the San Diego Police Department provide current policies and practices related to the collection of racial data. As Vice-Chair of the PS & LN committee, Councilmember Cole wanted to begin a necessary public dialogue between SDPD and Communities of Color about community policing practices. The following summarizes what Chief Lansdowne agreed to:

- 1) Data collections on stops
- 2) Revised training on cultural sensitivity
- 3) Policy change on how people are approached at stops: Police will ask for identity versus first asking "are you on parole or probation?"
- 4) No more sitting people on curbs during stops
- 5) Involved in town hall meetings with the community at Tubman-Chavez Center in the Fourth Council District
- 6) Identify funding for lapel (on body) cameras for on-duty police officers.

El Mensaje de Myrtle

Desarrollo Económico | Serie de conciertos en el Centro Jacobs
Revitalizando la Comunidad con la ayuda de la Regidora Myrtle Cole

Una de nuestras joyas distritales, el Centro de Innovación Comunitaria Jacobs lanzó la primer serie de conciertos de primer nivel, atrayendo a más de 600 espectadores al Distrito 4.

La serie de conciertos inicio este 22 de Enero con la presentación del aclamado grupo de R&B, Mint Condition.

Estoy muy contenta que este gran evento contó con mucho apoyo por parte de la comunidad. Espero que negocios en Market Creek Plaza pronto se beneficien de eventos como estos. Al final del concierto, el presidente del Centro Jacobs menciono: "Nos estamos revitalizando con la ayuda de la Regidora Myrtle Cole", y pensé: "¡Si, lo estamos haciendo!"

Felicidades a la comunidad de Oak Park

Quiero agradecer a los vecinos de la comunidad de Oak Park por su extraordinaria labor comunitaria durante el día de celebración al legado del Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Nueve voluntarios salieron a limpiar cinco calles y a pintar las cercas. Este es el segundo año consecutivo que este grupo realiza esta labor comunitaria. ¡Muchas gracias a Lorraine Marshall por organizar a este gran equipo de voluntarios!
