Transportation to the Game

The San Diego Trolley

The San Diego Trolley is the number-one mode of transportation to the stadium. Fans can ride the Trolley on the Green Line between Old Town and Santee before and after all games. Charger fans will have increased options along the Green Line from the East County, including:

- El Cajon Transit Center (Main St. at Marshall)
- Grossmont Transit Center (8601 Fletcher Parkway at Grossmont Center Dr.)
- Grantville (I-8 at Mission Gorge)

Fans can also pick up the Trolley at:

- Hazard Center (parking is free on Hazard Center's lower level, corner of Friars Road and Frazee)
- Old Town Transit Center (Pacific Highway at Taylor Street)

The Green Line begins running three hours before kickoff. Buy a $5 Day Pass at ticket vending machines before boarding. Commemorative Day Passes are also sold in advance at The Transit Store at 1st and Broadway and at the Chargers Team Store at Qualcomm Stadium, Gate G. For more information on the San Diego Trolley, visit www.sdmts.com or call 5-1-1.

COASTER

North County Fans can now COASTER to all Sunday Home Games! Coaster trains depart the Oceanside station Sunday with stops at all stations along the way before arriving at the Old Town Transit Center where fans can transfer to the Trolley Green Line to continue on to Qualcomm Stadium.

The $14 Region Plus Day Pass is sold at all Coaster Ticket Machines and provides round-trip travel on both the COASTER and the San Diego Trolley. For more information and a schedule of departures times from all COASTER stations, visit www.GoNCTD.com.

Carpool

Fans are strongly urged to carpool to games! Plan your carpool this season by visiting www.iCommuteSD.com.

Driving to the Game

For fans that must drive to the stadium, they are urged to carpool and arrive early. We strongly encourage fans to arrive at least two hours before game time. As usual, there will be heavy congestion around the stadium and avoid the congestion on Interstate 15 South. Fans traveling south to the stadium are recommended to take 163 South to Friars Road East, or take Interstate 8 to Qualcomm Way which also leads to Friars Road East.

The stadium parking lot opens four hours prior to kickoff. Vehicles with pre-purchased parking permits can enter the parking lot five hours prior to kickoff. The parking lot can be expected to reach capacity and close an hour or more before kickoff.

Overflow parking will be available at the Mission City Corporate Center (2365 Northside Dr., adjacent to the stadium), San Diego State University, Mission Valley Marriott Hotel and the Town and Country Hotel. Overflow lots vary in price. For more overflow information, click here.

Family Parking

This alternative tailgate area is ideal for families, friends and individuals who choose to tailgate without featuring alcohol at their party. The Chargers, in cooperation with Qualcomm Stadium, Ace Parking and the San Diego Police Department are offering this parking location to all guests as a reserved permit parking area. Permits can be purchased in advance, on a seasonal basis, for only $20 per game. To purchase, call the Chargers ticket office at (619) 281-PARK.

Stadium Parking Lot

With the parking lot expected to fill early, fans are reminded that tailgating is allowed only in their own parking space. Police will issue citations to fans whose tailgate parties infringe on neighboring parking spaces or parties which block sidewalk and pedestrian areas.

Fans are also reminded that glass bottles are not allowed in the parking lot. Tailgate parties which provide catered food service or furnishes a keg must provide proof of liability insurance and obtain a permit from the stadium in advance. Throwing of objects, selling of items, riding on scooters/skateboards/rollerblades and amplified music and excessive noise which may cause a disturbance is prohibited by the City of San Diego.

Any object that can be considered or used as a weapon is not allowed inside the stadium. Objects with sharp edges or tips, including all metal and hard plastic costume accessories, are not allowed inside the stadium. Helmets and plastic head wear are allowed providing the item does not resemble the definitions above.

Other items that are prohibited from entering the stadium include, but are not limited to: sticks, inflatable objects, laser pointers, flammable objects, stun guns, fireworks, lawn furniture, spray bottles, sports bottles, beach balls, frisbees, musical instruments, boomerangs, knives, mace and pepper spray, chains, balloons, sports balls, water guns, roller blades, skates, scooters, noise making devices and umbrellas.

Entering the Stadium

Gates to the stadium will open at 11:30 AM. Club seat and luxury suite ticket holders will be admitted beginning at 10:00 AM. In order to be in their seats in time for kickoff, fans should arrive at the stadium gates by 12:00 PM.

Gameday...The Right Way!

The Chargers are committed to creating a safe, comfortable, and enjoyable experience for all fans, both in the stadium and in the parking lot. We want all fans attending our games to enjoy the experience in a responsible fashion.

Fans who demonstrate inappropriate and disruptive behavior, including the following, are subject to ejection and season ticket holders risk losing their season ticket account and/or parking privileges for:

- Excessive consumption of alcohol
- Obscene, offensive or abusive language or actions
- Fighting, or otherwise dangerous, abusive or profane behavior
- Unruly or inconsiderate behavior
- Indecent exposure or undressing
- Wearing obscene or indecent clothing
- Smoking inside the stadium
- Scalping or other improper resale of tickets
- Interfering with security procedures
- Interfering with the progress of the game, going onto the field or throwing any object onto the field or on the stadium premises
- Any action warranting eviction and/or confiscation of game tickets by SDPD or stadium security

Event patrons are responsible for their conduct as well as the conduct of their guests and/or persons using their tickets. Even if season ticket holders give away or sell their tickets to a game, the account holder is accountable for the actions of those using the tickets. Accounts can be forfeited partially or entirely for violations of the Code of Conduct.

Event patrons and guests will be subject to ejection without refund and potential loss of ticket privileges for future games for violations of the Code of Conduct.

The San Diego Chargers and Qualcomm Stadium thank you for adhering to our Fan Code of Conduct. Let's all enjoy Gameday...the right way!

Fans can report fan conduct issues from their cell phone or mobile device. Call or text 619-641-5151. Message and data rates may apply.

No Smoking

As per San Diego Municipal Code, Qualcomm Stadium is a smoke-free facility. Smoking is prohibited inside all areas of Qualcomm Stadium. Fans who continue to smoke inside the stadium will be subject to ejection.
