SDPD Sergeant Arrested for Domestic Violence

San Diego – On December 22, 2019, SDPD Sergeant Don Williams was placed under arrest by the Carlsbad Police Department for domestic violence related charges. The San Diego Police Department does not tolerate this type of criminal conduct and Chief David Nisleit has removed Sergeant Williams' police officer powers and placed him on unpaid leave.

Yesterday morning, Carlsbad police officers responded to Sergeant Williams' residence after receiving a report of domestic violence. The sergeant was off duty and inside his home. Carlsbad Police conducted a criminal investigation and placed Sergeant Williams under arrest without incident and booked him into Vista Jail. The Carlsbad Police Department is the lead agency in this arrest and criminal investigation.

Sergeant Williams has been with SDPD for over 22 years and was assigned to Mid-City Division investigations.
