On Tuesday, April 25th, my City Council Colleagues and I unanimously passed the funding allocations for the City of San Diego's Fiscal Year 2018 Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) program. This funding will finance numerous programs and projects in the Fourth Council District. The CDBG funding allocations include:

- $106,200 to Kitchens for Good which provides a free culinary job training program to help low-income residents experiencing significant barriers to employment move into jobs and self-sustainability
- $500,000 for the design phase of the Bay Terraces Community (Senior) Center
- $99,528 to the Second Chance Program which addresses the workforce training and education needs of San Diego's low-income youth as they transition from adolescence to adulthood
- $181,077 to Accion San Diego which provides San Diego businesses with direct financing to start or expand their businesses
- $280,476 to Jacobs Center for Neighborhood Innovation for their Chollas Creek Gateways and improvement. The funding will go to two community gateways and three permanent shade structures at the Northwest Village Chollas Creek linear park
- $237,440 to Jacobs Center for Neighborhood Innovation for their Chollas Creek South Healthy Urban Trail. The money will improve 700 feet of an existing multiuse trail along a portion of Chollas Creek

I am excited that the CDBG funding for projects and programs in Council District 4 passed. It is another step that will make the Fourth Council District a better place to live, work, and play.
